Q4 2025 Fund Commentary

Commentary and opinions are provided by Acadian Asset Management Corporation

Market Commentary

Global equities rose 3.4% in the fourth quarter of 2025 amid an accommodative macroeconomic backdrop and resilient corporate fundamentals. The U.S. Federal Reserve Board (Fed) cut interest rates twice, lowering the range of its federal funds rate to 3.5%–3.75%. Despite lingering inflation near 3% and stretched valuations, riskier assets rose, lifting U.S. large- and small-capitalization stocks, developed international markets and gold to fresh highs.

U.S. equities rose 2.3%, supported by solid earnings, easing U.S.-China trade tensions and the Fed's interest rate cuts. Canadian equities rose 6.1% on Bank of Canada interest rate cuts, robust commodity prices, strong bank earnings and favourable currency dynamics. Canada's economy rebounded in the third quarter of 2025, expanding 0.6%, driven by improved trade balances, though consumption and inventories softened. Canada's labour market showed mixed signals, with unemployment dipping to 6.5% on part-time job gains.
